OFFICERS NAMED FOR LOCAL RED CROSS

Fiscal Court To Seek $52,000 On Damaged Roads

Calloway Fiscal Court met yesterday in their regular monthly meeting. Much of the meeting was taken up with a discussion of the roads in the county.

The county has submitted about $52,000 in claims through the Civil Defense, for roads damaged in the Spring rains.

Judge Robert O. Miller said that approximately 90 per cent of the work has been completed on storm damaged roads, with about one-half of the funds spent. Four bridges will be taken up the remainder of the funds which the county hopes to receive from Civil Defense.

The four bridges are large and will be built by contract.

The city school budget was submitted yesterday by Superintendent of City School Fred Schultz.

The court will meet on June 29 to pass on the city and county school budgets, and the county budget for next year, June 30 will end the current fiscal year of the court.

County Sheriff Woodrow Rickman returned $6,610.70 to the county in excess fees. He also returned $853.32 to the county schools and $1,247.96 to the city schools. By law the sheriff may receive four per cent of the county taxes for collecting them.

Sheriff Rickman said he took two and one-half per cent instead of the four, then after the collection was complete returned to the schools the one-half of one percent, leaving him a total of two per cent for collection of taxes.

The court appointed Cecil Taylor chairman, and Noel Warren and Thurston Puryear on a committee to study the problem of the dumping of trash and refuse on the county roads. The practice has grown until it has become a major problem in the county.

The committee will study the situation and try to arrive at some solution.

Part of what they contributed will be used for the operation of this camp.

Camp Kysoc was constructed specifically for children who are handicapped in some manner, so they could enjoy summer camp too.

The white face calf in the trailer across the street voicing his opinion of the world. Figures his future is not too good.

Don't know whether it is much consolation or not to him, that he will provide a good evening meal for somebody.

Guess the family animals figure that it was a bad day for them yesterday. Stepped all over the cat yesterday afternoon then stepped on the dog last night.

They have an affinity for feet anyway and you have to tread your way through them like balancing your self on stones to cross a small creek. Especially the cat. He winds his way back and fourth under your feet until you feel like sending him on his way with a heavy boot.

Lions To Fete Family Here During June

The Murray Lions Club in cooperation with Murray business men will sponsor a "guest-for-a-day" project during the months of June, July, and August. Club president Jimmy Dale Clifton announced today.

Clopton named Lion Vernon Anderson as chairman of the project which is being initiated to focus attention on the Murray area as a tourist attraction.

The Lions club through the help of the city police will "arrest" an out-of-state tourist on the fourth Thursday of each month. The detained tourists will then have the welcome mat of the city and county spread for them during their stay.

Courtesies extended to the surprised tourists will begin with lodging in a local motel and end up with a full evening of entertainment. Lion Bryan Tolley will be the congenial host.

Murray has been considering such a project for some time, Anderson stated. Recently Bryan Tolley was the guest of such a reception while on a vacation and his experience has greatly aided in formulating the plans for our own project, he concluded.

Local citizens are urged to watch for future announcements of more detailed plans that they may take part in really making the tourists feel they are "guests-for-a-day."

Registration On June 12 At Murray High

If possible, new students should bring their report cards from previous schools to facilitate registration. The purpose of this registration is to help orientate new students and to give them proper scholastic guidance.

This announcement does not apply to new students who have already registered.

Camp Kysoc Opens For Three Week Camp Session

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) - A three-week resident camp session for children with hearing handicaps will be held from June 14 to July 3 at Camp Kysoc, near Carrollton.

The special camp, for children from nine to 16, is for youngsters with hearing handicaps which cause difficulties in speech and language development. Forty-eight children from all areas of Kentucky will attend.

The program is sponsored by the Kentucky Society for Crippled Children in cooperation with the WHAS Crusade for Children.

"A $5,000 grant from the WHAS Crusade for Children for this project makes it possible for Kentucky to join 20 other states already having such programs," said W. T. Isaac, executive director of the Kentucky Society for Crippled Children.

At camp the youngsters will participate in regular camping activities and will put into use general conversational speech.

"Because treatment and therapy will be given continuously on a daily basis, the 3-week camping period is expected to be equal to several months of out-patient therapy," said Dr. Clifford Whipple, director of the Society's Hearing and Speech Center.

A morning and afternoon period of learning, understanding, and practicing the speech and language pertinent to the day's activities will be held for the children, he continued.

The regular staff at Camp Kysoc for sessions for physically handicapped children will be augmented by graduates in the hearing and speech field for this camp period.

Both Senator John S. Cooper and Senator Thurston Morton voted in favor of halting debate on the civil rights bill by invoking cloture.

Local Students In Track Meet

Students from Murray High School and Calloway County High participated in the All State Girls' Track meet held Saturday at Fort Campbell.

Cosette Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jiles Jackson and a senior at Murray High, placed second in the all around number of points and won the silver medal. She won the 750 yard dash, was second in the 50-yard dash and was fourth in the long jump. She accumulated 22 points during the meet.

Linda Bennett of Calloway won fourth place in the standing broad jump and Diane Scott of Calloway was sixth in the high jump.

More than 200 girls, representing 42 schools, competed in this first state track meet conducted by the State Division for Girls' and Women's Sports.

Representing Murray High were Cosette Jackson, Debbie Dibble, Mary Youngerman, Annie May Foster, Linda Harris, Rita Ryan, Phyllis Poole, and Greer Houston. Mrs. Dew Drop Rowlett is track coach.

U. S. Olympic javelin star Fran Davenport of California put on a demonstration at the girls' meet.

Danny Lampkins Wins Certificate For Top Physical Fitness

Danny Lampkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Lampkins, Jr. of Olive Boulevard, has received a Certificate of Merit for proficiency in the physical fitness test given at Fort Dix, New Jersey. Young Lampkins just completed his basic training there.

The certificate says that "this citation shall serve as recognition of his superior physical condition as evidenced by his having attained the highest score (500) out of a possible 500 in the final Army Physical Fitness Test in Company A 3rd Training Regiment, during the basic training cycle from April 13, 1964 to June 4, 1964."

The certificate was signed by Lt. Col. C. E. Bailey, Commanding. In a letter accompanying the certificate, Lt. Col. Bailey said "you have applied the particular techniques in which you have been instructed, with outstanding results, and you have demonstrated clearly those qualities of physical fitness, stamina and coordination which are so essential to a combat soldier."

"The fine competitive spirit that you have shown reflects much credit upon yourself, the officers and training personnel of your company, and the 3rd Training Regiment (Pioneers)."

"Only eight persons have achieved this standing, which gives some idea as to the toughness of the test. Danny participated in sports at Murray High School where he graduated. He is home on furlough for a two weeks period and will report back to Fort Dix about June 20."

Letter to the Editor

Dear Mr. Williams:

Thank you for the kind words about me in yesterday's Ledger & Times. I have had the privilege of working with the youngsters of this community for the past three years, and it was not my choice that ended this association.

My teaching career was terminated by the Murray Board of Education with no explanation to me. Toward the end of March I was informed by the superintendent that the board did not plan to renew my contract. Upon my asking the reason for this action, I was told that it was not my teaching but a "personality thing". The superintendent asked for my resignation which I gave him. There has been no further amplification of his cryptic statement.

Both my principal and my supervisor have disclaimed any part in the decision to end my employment and the students, bless them, came to my aid with a petition which was presented, as I understand, by the president of the PTA to the chairman of the Murray Board of Education - to no avail.

"Quality Education" is the byword these days when the tax payers are being asked to tax themselves for school purposes. But "quality education" is more than new buildings - it is a relationship between a good teacher and an eager student. Murray is proud in its waste of good teachers.

At a recent faculty meeting at Murray High, I counted nine classroom teachers who were on permanent contract, and sixteen who had less than three years service. Murray High has turned over approximately one third of its faculty each year that I have been there. Is it a policy of the Murray Board of Education to balance the high salaries of its rank I teachers by keeping the remainder on beginner's pay? What must a teacher do to be placed on continuing contract in Murray?

The people of Murray should not be content with a great football team and a fine band. They should know what is going on in the classrooms and they should demand the best for their children.

Very Truly Yours
Ernestine Bucy

Activities For Past Year Show Local Chapter Highly Active

Harvey Ellis was named yesterday as Chairman of the Calloway County Chapter of the American Red Cross for her long service with the local chapter. Mrs. McDevitt is a retiring board member and has been the chairman of Volunteers.

A discussion was held of the date set for the next Bloodmobile visit. At the last visit 230 pints of blood were contributed by Calloway County citizens. A minimum of 270 pints must be contributed within a year from the first visit, to make a total of 500 pints, the county's quota.

A September 28 date was considered desirable, but a conflict with another Red Cross activity prevents this. Of the remaining open dates, November 23 was considered the best date for the county and efforts will be made to have the Bloodmobile here at that time.

Mrs. Mary Pace, Executive Secretary of the local chapter made a report of the past year's activities (Continued on Page 6)

Three Return Home From Conference

Miss Kathleen Madrey, Miss Connie Hopkins, and Gary Esell, all members of the Calloway County 4-H Teen Club have returned home after attending the ninth annual 4-H Regional Resource Development Conference held at Fontana Village, North Carolina June 1-5.

The conference is sponsored by the Tennessee Valley Authority and all expenses are paid by this agency.

Ernest Madrey of Murray accompanied the group from Calloway County. They left early Sunday, May 31, and spent that night at Knoxville, Tenn., before going on to the Dem.

In reporting on the trip Miss Madrey said that there were persons there from seven states including Alabama, North Carolina, Kentucky, Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Virginia.

Objectives of the conference, said Miss Madrey, were to increase the knowledge of and appreciation for the resources the region, to help understand how the future is being planned, and to provide leadership opportunities and make new friends.

In the resource groups seven natural fields were studied which were atmosphere, soils, minerals, wildlife, forestry, water, and human resource. In the latter study it was stressed the importance of getting a proper education before marriage.

Miss Madrey said there was something happening throughout the day. Delicious meals were served at the village and unsupervised recreation included swimming, table tennis, tennis, badminton, golf, and miniature golf. Supervised recreation included square dancing.

A general assembly was held with a different state in charge each day. Two or three resource study periods were held each day. Each evening a state meeting was held for the group to discuss its own problems and submit helpful suggestions.

The Calloway county group went by bus with the other Kentucky groups. They traveled through the Great Smoky Mountains and stopped at Fontana Dam which is 480 feet high and is one of the world's great gravity dams holding back the water by its sheer weight, approximately six millions tons. While there they rode on the cable car which carries forty passengers from the top of the dam to the powerhouse, which was very exciting, according to Miss Madrey.

This trip is sponsored each year by the TVA for 4-H club boys and girls and several persons from here have attended in the past. It is hoped that many more boys and girls will continue in their 4-H Club work and be able to attend this conference, Miss Madrey said.

"The young men of Hazel feel a need to better themselves and the community," Jerry White, Hazel JayCee president said.

"They feel this can best be done by working together as JayCees," he continued. He urged the support of the people of the community in making the Hazel club a success.

Helicopter Crashes In Benton Field

BENTON, Ky. (UPI) - A ride in a helicopter seemed like a wonderful birthday present for 10-year-old Stuart Leslie, but not the way it ended Tuesday.

The whirlybird crashed into a cornfield about five miles northwest of here, injuring Stuart and 9-year-old Scotty Webb, both of Metropolis, Ill. Molly was listed in serious condition at a Paducah hospital today. Stuart's condition was termed good.

John M. Clark, 35, of Greenville, Mich., pilot of the craft, and Lloyd Leslie, 36, Stuart's father, suffered only minor injuries in the accident.

Witnesses said the helicopter appeared to be damaged beyond repair, but Clark expressed the hope he could rebuild it. He placed $5 value at $18,000, all uninsured.

Clark said it was the third crack-up he'd had in the helicopter.

He said the accident occurred when the descending craft ran into two utility wires, which were hidden from his view by tall trees.

Clark had just flown to the Kentucky Lake area Sunday, hoping to profit from the tourist business there.

JUSTICE HINDERED

How the communists must laugh up their sleeve at the amount of time and money they cause to be expended in the American courts to protect them.

The Supreme Court has ruled that the party does not have to register under the Internal Security Act of 1950, because the officer of the party who so registers would incriminate himself and would be liable for prosecution under the Smith Anti-Communist Act of 1940.

That is exactly right. He should be prosecuted.

In fact America should outlaw the international communist movement and quit calling it a party.

The Supreme Court apparently is treating the communist "party" the same as it would treat the Republican or Democrat party.

If the court would go back to the original definition of the communist they would find that he is dedicated to overthrowing a democracy by fair means or foul.

We don't know of any change in their intent, although just tactics have been changed somewhat.

This court battle has been going on for thirteen years in the United States, with the Supreme Court apparently favoring the rights of the communists over the rights of the people of the United States.

We fail to comprehend on just what basis the Supreme Court is operating when it comes to the communist. With the stated purpose of the communist so well known, we would say that he is an anarchist per se, and he should be kept out of this nation altogether, and prosecuted when found just like any other criminal.

The Supreme Court has long been a stumbling block in the path of the FBI to convict communists. They are turned loose as fast as the FBI can gather evidence to convict them.

It would appear that just being a communist would be ample justification for prosecution.

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UP) — It's either keep the communists from taking over Southeast Asia or else it's the Reds on our doorstep, says a blind woman who for a quarter of a century has helped the handicapped in the Orient.

"We just don't seem to believe that the communists mean what they say," said Genevieve Caulfield. "They've told us they intend to conquer the world. Both Khrushchev and Mao have said it."

"Less Southeast Asia, then it's the infiltration of the Philippines, Hawaii next, California . . ."

"To every body who dies in Southeast Asia, a thousand could die in a later war. The Vietnamese alone have had 40,000 casualties."

Given High Honor

Politics and the hot spot of Asia interest this woman, although it is for her one woman "peace corps" operation that President Johnson recently presented her with the Presidential Medal of Honor. It is the highest civilian honor the United States bestows.

Genevieve Caulfield was born 76 years ago in Suffolk, Va., and was blinded by a nursery accident when she was three months old.

She attended the Perkins School for the Blind and later Overbrook School for the Blind.

She was 17 when a discriminatory article about the Japanese was read to her by a teacher. She decided to be a one-woman envoy to show the true spirit of Americans.

To prepare for a future as a teacher, she attended Trinity College, Washington, D.C., and got her degree from Columbia University, New York.

Paid Own Way

The year was 1923 when she went to Japan, she recalled in an interview. And unlike today's peace corpsmen, she paid her own way.

Her stay with the Japanese lasted until 1939 when the growing threat of war was everywhere. But instead of leaving Asia, she moved on to Bangkok, and it was here that she started her schools for training the blind educationally and vocationally.

A foundation for the blind operates the centers, the older one on the outskirts of Bangkok, the other at Chiang Mai, in north Thailand. The foundation gets some government support; the rest comes from the Thais and foreigners.

In 1964, President Ngo Dinh Diem of South Vietnam "he was killed in a coup last year" asked her to set up a program for the blind in Saigon.

The program is privately supported, she said, through the Association of Friends of Viet Nam.

Book Gift From the White House

LOOK WHO'S HERE . . . Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson inspected the Breathitt County Bookmobile during her recent visit to Jackson, the County seat. The First Lady left an autographed copy of "The White House," a history and guidebook of the official residence, with the Breathitt County librarian, Mrs. Carrie Hunt. Mrs. Johnson said that she hoped her contribution to the Bookmobile would circulate as widely as the vehicle's other 1,000 volumes, provided by the State Department of Libraries. Some 100 Kentucky counties now are served by Bookmobiles with service to the Women's Prison at Pewee Valley as the newest innovation. The Shelby County Bookmobile will begin regular trips to the prison in July.

Johnny Keane Is Taking Back What He Said About Sadecki; He's A Pitching Star Now

By CURT BLOCH
UPI Sports Writer

Cards Manager Johnny Keane is taking it all back about Ray Sadecki—in spades.

It was 1962 when Keane accused the left-hander of "roofing off" and putting on "the poorest exhibition I've ever seen on a major league diamond," after Sadecki was roughed up in a relief appearance.

Now, the usually soft-spoken Keane is delighted about how Sadecki has blossomed and become one of the stars of a pitching staff

Keane is high with talent. And following Tuesday night's 1-0 victory over the Yankees, Sadecki's record stood at 1-0.

Notoriously a slow starter, Sadecki was 0-3 on May 10. Within the last month he has won six of seven decisions and hurled four complete games to boost his record to 6-4.

He hooked up with Juan Marichal Tuesday night for eight scoreless innings until Charley James lined a single to center to bring home

Curt Flood who had singled and moved to second on a sacrifice.

Giants Lead Out

Marichal suffered his second setback against eight victories, although he allowed only five hits.

one less than Sadecki, as the Giants' lead was cut to a game over the Phils.

Sadecki struck out five, including pinchhitter Willie McCovey who ended the contest looking at a third strike with a teammate aboard.

In other games, Cincinnati edged Los Angeles, 2-1, in two-night doubleheaders. Philadelphia nipped Pittsburgh, 4-3, in the first, but was blanked 4-0, in the second game, the Mets rallied in the 12th to beat Chicago, 6-5, in the opener, but dropped the nightcap, 5-2, and Houston took two from Milwaukee, 6-5 and 4-1.

In the American League, Chicago defeated Baltimore, 9-5, Boston took the Yankees, 5-2, Los Angeles clipped Cleveland, 5-1, Detroit slaughtered

Minnesota, 16-1, and Washington up-ended Kansas City twice, 8-4 and 5-1.

Four Red pitchers combined to stymie the Dodgers on four hits. The game's only extra base hit and the Reds' only safety for 7½ innings was Gordy Coleman's homer in the second inning. While Joe Moeber kept the Reds from exploding, the Los Angeles bombers were lifeless, with singles by Maury Wills and Wes Parker the only hits off winner Jim O'Toole. Ryne Duren and Bill Henry were called on in the eighth when the Dodgers scored their only run.

Deciding Run

Cincinnati's deciding run came in the top of the eighth when pinch-hitter Marty Keough singled in Leo Cardenas.

The second place Phillies snapped a four-game losing streak in their opener with Pittsburgh with the help of Richie Allen's two-run homer, the Phils first since May 31. It came before the largest crowd of the season in Philadelphia, 32,155.

Ed Roebuck buried three innings of one-hit ball to preserve Art Ma-haffey's fifth triumph. Roebuck was summoned by Manager Gene Mauch after Jerry Lynch hit a three-run homer.

In the nightcap, Pirate rookie Steve Blass hurled his first big league shutout, fanning seven and scattering four safeties. Bob Bailey had the game's only home run.

Veteran Lew Burdette, recently obtained by Chicago, made his first

Cub start and went all the way allowing nine hits in the second

Met game.

New York battled from behind to take the first in 12 innings on Jesse Gonder's single with the bases full.

Larry Bearnarth was the hero, pitching nine scoreless innings in relief, the first seven hitless. But it was Ron Santo's 12th inning error that opened the gates for the Mets after Chicago had taken a 5-4 lead in the top half of the inning. Bearnarth is the first Met hurler in history to win four straight games. His record is now 4-3.

Parrell Wins Ninth

Dick Parrell, a 20-game loser two years ago, picked up his ninth win of the season to make him the major league's winningest pitcher and Don Nottebart notched his first victory after seven losses as Houston swept Milwaukee.

Parrell was reached for 14 hits and left the game with none out and men on first and second in the eighth, leading 6-5.

Relief ace Hal Woodeshick fed a double play ball to Joe Torre and fanned Ed Matthews to end the game and register his 10th save.

Houston's Bob Aspromonte increased his home run total to three with homers in each game.

The Colts scored four times in the eighth inning of the nightcap sending 10 men to the plate. Milwaukee's Bob Sadowski was working on a one-hitter entering the eighth but Aspromonte's homer and Bob

Lillis' single with the bases loaded were the big blows which left

Sadowski with his sixth loss in eight decisions.

Senators Have Cold Chills Every Time They Think Of Almost Losing .350 Hitter

By MILTON RICHMAN

UPI Sports Writer

Cold chills run up and down the Washington Senators every time they think how they passed up a

.350 hitch-hiker, and were lucky enough to pick him up on the way back.

His name is Chuck Hinton and not only is he pressing Tony Oliva for the American League batting title, but he's also supplying the push that could move the surging

Senators out of the second division.

The 28-year old Hinton, who cracked out six hits Tuesday night in helping Washington to an 8-4 and 5-1 sweep over Kansas City, actually hitch-hiked his way into baseball.

He thumbed a ride to Washington from Raleigh, N.C., in 1956 to try out with the Senators but they thought he was too skinny.

Orlones Signed Hinton

The Baltimore Orioles didn't, however, and signed him, only to include him on their expansion draft list five years later.

That's when the Senators officially acquired him. They've been consulting themselves since and the Orioles have been kicking themselves.

Hinton jumped his batting average 13 points to .350 Tuesday night when he stroked a double and two singles in the opener against the

A's and then did an encore with another double and a pair of singles in the finale.

He had some help from his teammates, too. Chuck Ottier's three-run homer broke a 4-4 tie in the first game while Jim King's fourth homer in two nights snapped a 1-1 deadlock in the nightcap. Buster Nasum (6-3) and Tom Cheney (1-2), were the winning pitchers.

The White Sox increased their league lead to 1½ games with a 9-5 victory over the second place

Dear Abby . . .

Double Grief

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I read about the kind, considerate woman who was given a box of good clothing that once belonged to her dearest friend who had died. She asked you if you thought it might adden members of her friend's family to see their mother's clothing being worn by someone else. I was pleased that you told her to go ahead and wear them as it would give them pleasure. I know I lost a beautiful daughter in her early 20's. She had closets full of lovely clothes. After she passed away, I divided them up and gave them to my friends. I was deeply hurt when I offered a brand new evening gown to one young woman and she replied, "Thanks a lot, but I don't think I could ever put it on. It would give me the creeps."

HURT DEEPLY

DEAR ABBY: When my father died we distributed his clothes to needy men all over town. Had had a horse blanket type jacket he wore for fishing, which we gave to Old Rudy, the janitor who worked at our plant. One evening mother and I were walking down the street and I spotted Old Rudy — who was usually daddy's size — walking toward us in that familiar fishing jacket. My heart skipped a beat, and I tried to distract mother, not knowing how she would react. She saw him, of course, and then she said to me, "Oh, look. There's Old Rudy in dad's jacket. Wouldn't dad be pleased to know that Old Rudy is getting some good out of it? Dad always thought so much of him!"

DAD'S GIRL IN WAUSAU

DEAR ABBY: As is usually the lot of the eldest daughter, I was called upon to dispose of all my mother's usable clothing after she had passed away. My mother, in her lifetime, had always been a very generous person, and she was forever giving to those less fortunate than herself. I distributed her clothing among those who were needy. I gave a fine winter wardrobe to mamma's landress. Several of my friends recognized my mother's good winter coat being worn by this woman. One friend said to me, "Doesn't it bother you to see your mother's clothes again?" I answered, "If I never wanted to see them again, I'd have given everything to the Salvation Army."

NOT BOTHERED

DEAR ABBY: Our mother was as pretty as a picture and was always dressed in the height of fashion and in the most elegant taste. Her weakness was beautiful hats, and she had dozens of them. She died, at 64, two years ago. We gave each of her friends one of mother's lovely hats. Some were ten years old, but still fashionable, and all were as good as new, in their original boxes and tissue. You cannot imagine the joy it brought us when we spotted eight of mother's beautiful hats in church on Easter Sunday.

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I read about the kind, considerate woman who was given a box of good clothing that once belonged to her dearest friend who had died. She asked you if you thought it might sadden members of her friend's family to see their mother's clothing being worn by someone else. I was pleased that you told her to go ahead and wear them as it would give them pleasure. I know, I lost a beautiful daughter in her early 20's. She had closets full of lovely clothes. After she passed away, I divided them up and gave them to her friends. I was deeply hurt when I offered a brand new evening gown to one young woman and she replied, "Thanks a lot, but I don't think I could ever put it on. It would give me the creeps."

HURT DEEPLY

DEAR ABBY: When my father died we distributed his clothes to needy men all over town. Had had a horse blanket type jacket he wore for fishing, which we gave to Old Rudy, the janitor who worked at our plant. One evening mother and I were walking down the street and I spotted Old Rudy — who was exactly daddy's size — walking toward us in that familiar fishing jacket. My heart skipped a beat, and I tried to distract mother, not knowing how she would react. She saw him, of course, and then she said to me, "Oh, look. There's Old Rudy in dad's jacket. Wouldn't it be pleasant to know that Old Rudy is getting some good out of it? Dad always thought so much of him!"

DAD'S GIRL IN WAUSAU

DEAR ABBY: As is usually the lot of the eldest daughter, I was called upon to dispose of all my mother's usable clothing after she had passed away. My mother, in her lifetime, had always been a very generous person, and she was forever giving to those less fortunate than herself. I distributed her clothing among those who were needy. I gave a fine winter wardrobe to mama's laundress. Several of my friends recognized my mother's good winter coat being worn by this woman. One friend said to me, "Doesn't it bother you to see your mother's clothes again?" I answered, "If I never wanted to see them again, I'd have given everything to the Salvation Army."

NOT BOTHERED

DEAR ABBY: Our mother was as pretty as a picture and was always dressed in the height of fashion and in the most elegant taste. Her weakness was beautiful hats, and she had dozens of them. She died, at 84, two years ago. We gave each of her friends one of mother's lovely hats. Some were ten years old, but still fashionable, and all were as good as new, in their original boxes and tissue. You cannot imagine the joy it brought us when we spotted eight of mother's beautiful hats in church on Easter Sunday.

tween the college of agriculture at Wisconsin and the Brazilian University.

Those to go are Herbert Bird, chairman of poultry science; Hans Babel, veterinary science; James Duncan, agricultural and extension education; Murdock soils; and Lloyd Boston, agricultural journalism.

The Wisconsin University agricultural staff members and government officials in research, teaching and extension programs. The university of Porto Alegre has some 7,000 students with 370 in agriculture. The agricultural college has a new 3,500-acre experimental farm.

Dr. Murdock received his early education at Lynn Grove High School and enrolled at Murray State College before entering the service in March 1946. He completed work for his B. S. degree in June 1952 and his M. S. degree in June 1953, both from the University of Kentucky, Lexington.

In June 1953 he entered the University of Wisconsin and received his Ph. D. in Soils in February 1956. He joined the Wisconsin soils department staff in October 1955 and has continued in that field, now with the position of associate professor.

Murdock has been active in research and is co-author of three published scientific papers.

During July Dr. Murdock will be teaching a two weeks educational course on the use of radiotopes in agriculture for the International Atomic Energy Agency at Piracicaba, Brazil.

Murdock is married to the former Sue Workman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Workman. She is a graduate of Murray Training School in the class of 1949 of which she was salutatorian. While her husband was in school at Lexington and Madison she worked for the Tele-

It was also reported that the bank balance of the chapter as of June 5 of this year was $6,525.84.

A district conference and workshop will be held at the college on September 28 with General James F. Collins to give the keynote address. The governor has been invited to attend.

Takes real control.

Attorney Joseph Williams has his family with him now Joe has been here for some time and had to wait for school to end to move his family.

Most people can't stand prosperity, but fortunately most people do not have to.

Mrs. Susan McDevitt is a gracious person. She got a ten year pen yesterday for service to the Red Cross and protested that she didn't deserve it. The service she has given has been strictly volunteer service, with no pay attached.

Went out to Edgar's the other day and got some plants. With the way things are put up now in little peat or moss pots, plants never know they've been moved.

Since hearing about Hafford James' ripe tomatoes, we put out three Big Boys too.

Three of our guards finally came up and if the bugs don't get them, we should have a good crop.

They are the parents of three children, Ricky, age seven, Cindy, age five, and Larry, age two. Upon their arrival in Porto Alegre, Ricky will be entering school as their school terms run from March to December.

The Murdock family have been active members of the Madison Church of Christ with Murdock serving as a deacon. They plan to do mission work for the Church of Christ in Porto Alegre with a congregation in their home at first. It is thought that the nearest congregation is over one hundred miles away.

They have been taking Portuguese language lessons since December as Murdock will be lecturing in that language while there. He has his ham radio operator's license and plans to use it for communication with the University while there.

Their address is John T. Murdock, American Embassy, APO 676, A. C. P. A. New York, New York. They plan to be in Brazil for two years.
